Belmont Abbey

BELMONT ABBEY is a community of monks founded in 1859 to follow the 6th century rule of St. Benedict. Under the guidance of the Abbot the monks lead a common life of work, study and prayer. In his Rule St. Benedict says that "all guests should be welcomed as Christ". At Belmont we try to continue that monastic tradition of hospitality and we look forward to welcoming you.

Hedley Lodge

Hedley Lodge offers comfortable ensuite accommodation all the year round for holidays, retreats and quiet breaks.

A wide range of meals is available, including sandwiches and lighter snacks. The Sunday Carvery is very popular, and special lunches are often planned, for example for Mother's Day and Easter Sunday.

Telephone: 01432 37 47 47

hedley@belmontabbey.org.uk

Abbey Bookshop

The monastery shop stocks a wide range of books and religious items. It is normally open 2.30 - 4.30 Monday to Saturday, and after the 9.30 and 11.00 Masses on Sunday.

Day Events at Belmont Abbey

The Belmont Community welcomes individuals and groups to its Day Events as part of its Benedictine tradition of hospitality.
