Retreats, Conferences & Workshops

Beyond the Syrian Sea

Led by Dom Brendan Thomas

Friday 27th to Sunday 29th
January 2012

Cost £25 plus meals/accommodation.

We speak of the Road to Damascus, but what of the road from Damascus? What of the very beginnings of the Church played out in Syria, where the disciples of Jesus were first called 'Christians'?

We encounter in Syria a Church laid on the foundations of Peter and Paul, reflected in the Gospels of Matthew and Luke.

“As grain, once scattered on the hillsides, was in this broken bread made one, so from all lands your Church is gathered into your kingdom by your Son.”
The Didache

We find itinerant preachers in that early Church document the Didache, vibrant Christian community in the Sons and Daughters of the Covenant. We meet a poet-theologian in St Ephrem, the witness of martyrdom in Ignatius, Sergius and Bacchus, and eccentricity-with-a-purpose in Simeon and the Stylite Saints .

From the Sea of Galilee to the Euphrates, from Damascus to Antioch we explore the Church as it emerges and finds its feet in Syria, called the 'Cradle of Christianity.'
